Homeopathy

a remedy for all

• A Remedy For What Ails The New Age

MindHeal Homeopathy is a system of homeopathy that harnesses the power of the mind and body. We effect deep healing by working at the genetic level to cure chronic and serious disorders. That's our specialty. MindHeal is classic homeopathy at its most powerful.

• How is MindHeal Homeopathy different from other therapies?

Most people tackle disease including stubborn infections, weight gain, high cholesterol, joint pains, thyroid disorders and polycystic ovarian disease with antibiotics, painkillers, enzyme inhibitors, hormonal therapy and even surgery. However, allopathy acts in only one way – by controlling and suppressing these disorders. This is mistakenly called a “cure”. However, temporarily quelled but still raging, these destructive processes invariably resurface as other illnesses.

MindHeal's remedies act at the very root of these destructive processes. Working at the very metabolic level and on the immune system, our remedies alter an individual's basic constitutional type. By correcting your constitutional deficiencies and weaknesses, we can free you from all disease – permanently. And mind you, we've seen some pretty dramatic results and real quick.

• Is MindHeal more powerful than the best beauty products?

The face is the mirror of the mind. That's because the secret to looking good lies in you're constitutional make-up. When constitutional imbalances are chronic, your hair looks dull or begins to split, your nails turn brittle and your skin breaks out. Cosmetic products either mask these problems or use strong chemicals to force your natural attributes to look a certain way.

MindHeal brings about a deep healing and every one of our patients returns visibly transformed – not only do your ailments clear up but you acquire a glow that even the most expensive beauty products and treatments cannot give. Since our remedies work at the mind-body level, they alter your basic thought processes and gift you a positive outlook to life. Are we claiming we can change the way you look? Make that a resounding “yes”!

• Can MindHeal alter your basic personality?

Thoughts, emotions and moods are nothing but a series of complex electrical and biochemical reactions in your body. An unhealthy constitutional make-up leads to anxiety, depression, feelings of loneliness, rejection and lack of self-confidence.

We can't choose our life's circumstances – failures, disappointments, unhappy relationships or a demanding job – but we can change the way we perceive and react to them. By rebalancing your basic biochemistry, MindHeal can bring about a complete inner transformation. Yes, our remedies lead to profound changes in the way you begin to interpret life.
